READING THE SIGNS

Like generations of Jews before him, John the Baptist grew up looking for the Messiah. Waiting, preparing his heart for the day God would send a Redeemer. But even as the "voice in the wilderness" John needed God's guidance to recognize the Chosen One. He was given a sign: "On whomever you see the Spirit come down and remain, he is the one who will baptize with the Holy Spirit." So John started on the long road of his ministry. He listened and heard God's call to preach repentance, baptizing those who came with water. And John waited, watching for the sign, until the day his Messiah appeared on the banks of the Jordan. His obedience and faithful reading of the signs enabled John to fulfill God's promise in his life. Just like John we need to be faithful watchers today. Take a moment to ask yourself: Have I heard God's call to my special task in life? Am I busy on the banks of my Jordan? Am I watching for the coming of Jesus?

FAMILY LIFE "The relationship between husband and wife is the foundation of the family. When a couple shares greater love, joy, intimacy, understanding, spirituality and communications, the children are the first to notice and feel the effect. Our children are the seeds and our Sacraments of Matrimony are the soil they fall on. By nurturing and cultivating our Sacraments we provide rich soil for our children to grow, flourish, and blossom in." Consider attending a Worldwide Marriage Encounter Weekend. To reserve a spot for Apr 29-May 1, contact Steve & Mary sbohn@interchange.ubc.ca www.wwme.org

2ND SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME—JANUARY 16

Roots – Cultivate the Virtues – Fruits

The vision of stewardship in our Archdiocese is clear. It is rooted in scripture, Church teaching, and the sacraments, particularly our baptism. We grow as Christian stewards by cultivating the virtues of prayer, humility, gratitude, simplicity, generosity, responsibility, trust, patience, perseverance, and mercy in our lives. The fruits of a greater commitment to stewardship are thriving, growing, communities whose members are passionate about their baptismal call: where all are seen as gifted and chosen by God to be a light to the world.
