WHO WANTS TO BE BLESSED?

When we read the beatitudes, it is often with mixed emotions. The results sound enticing, to inherit the earth, see God, be shown mercy; but some of those initial requirements sound pretty awful. Who wants to mourn, be poor in spirit or persecuted?

The simple answer is no one. Everyone wants to avoid sorrow and suffering. But we exist in a world that rejected Jesus and His loving lifestyle. So when we follow His example of servitude and sacrifice, it's bound to get painful. Life hurts, sometimes simply because we're Christians. And the beatitudes promise that these unavoidable pains will be noted and rewarded by our Heavenly Father.

4th Sunday in Ordinary Time January 30

St. Paul reminds us today that we are all chosen and called by God. All of us are called to be Christian disciples. This is our common vocation. A disciple of Jesus is one who responds to the call and lives a life in imitation of Christ. Stewardship is a part of that. It is the work of the Holy Spirit in us, which activates our gifts and makes being a disciple possible. So let us be humble and boast in the one source of all our gifts – God.
