TAKE THE NEXT STEP

It's hard not to be literal in this world. We're surrounded by law suits and conflict based on the tiniest details of contracts and agreements. It's a matter of self-preservation in both our business and private to watch every little fact in every contract we sign to be sure we do what is expected: not one bit more, not one bit less.

The problem is, God doesn't work that way. Oh yes, He has agreements with us, and expectations too. But He's not looking for letter-perfect obedience - He wants something more. If we look up to the Lord content with the fact that we've never committed murder, He will ask us, "How many hearts have you slain with your hatred, envy or prejudice?" When we rest on reputation for never gossiping He will ask, "How many words of encouragement, love and hope have you failed to say?" You see, God is looking for us to do more than plod along obediently not doing things. He's waiting for us to actively take the next step and do something of true value. What will you do for Him this week?

COMPLEMENTARY PSALMS

Psalm 125 (126)

Gladness and hope in the Lord

The Lord's deeds showed his greatness and filled us with rejoicing.

When the Lord gave Zion back her captives, we became like dreamers. Our mouths were filled with gladness and our voices cried in exultation. Among the Gentiles they were saying,

“By his deeds the Lord has shown himself great.”

The Lord's deeds showed forth his greatness,
and filled us with rejoicing.

Give us back our captives, O Lord,
as you renew the dry streams in the desolate South.
Those who sow in tears will rejoice at the harvest.

They wept as they went, went with seed for the sowing;
but with joy they will come, come bearing the sheaves.

Glory be to the Father and to the Son and to the Holy Spirit,
as it was in the beginning, is now, and ever shall be,
world without end.

Amen.

The Lord is my light and my help.
– The Lord protects my life.

AMEN
