SACRIFICE YOURSELF FOR LENT

Forsake yourself, resign yourself, and you shall enjoy great inward peace. Give all for all; ask for nothing, require back nothing; abide purely and unhesitating in God and you shall possess Him. You shall be free in heart, and darkness shall not tread you down. Let this be your Lenten endeavor, this your prayer, your desire: that you may be stripped of all selfishness and self-less follow Jesus; that you may die to yourself and live eternally to God.

MIRACLE OR NOT?

A new religious ed teacher was struggling to open a combination lock on the supply cabinet. She had been told the combination, but couldn't quite remember it.

Finally she went to the pastor's study and asked for help. The pastor came into the room and began to turn the dial. After the first two numbers he paused and stared blankly for a moment.

Finally he looked serenely heavenward and his lips moved silently, as if in prayer. Then he looked back at the lock, and quickly turned to the final number, and opened the lock.

The teacher was amazed. "I'm in awe at your faith, pastor," she said.

"It's really nothing," he answered. "The number is on a piece of tape on the ceiling."

FIRST SATURDAY DEVOTION—ORIGINS

The First Saturday Devotion to the Immaculate Heart of Mary was first mentioned by our Lady of Fatima on July 13, 1917. After showing the three children a terrifying vision of hell she said, "You have seen hell where the souls of poor sinners go. To save them, God wishes to establish in the world devotion to my Immaculate Heart. If what I say to you is done, many souls will be saved and there will be peace... I shall come to ask for... the Communion of reparation on the First Saturdays..." Seven years later, on December 10 1925, Mary and the child Jesus appeared to Lucia, the sole surviving Fatima seer, at a convent in Pontevedra, Spain. Our Lady rested her hand on Lucia's shoulder, revealing a heart encircled with thorns. The child said: have compassion on the heart of your most holy Mother, covered with thorns with which ungrateful men pierce it every moment and there is no one to make reparation.

- Leave late enough not to insult
- Worship reverently enough not to distract
- Dress enough not to offend

RACHEL'S VINEYARD Many women have no one to turn to who can help them validate and work through their grief. They feel isolated and become trapped in the mistaken belief that no one can understand their feelings. Come find help, understanding and hope on a Rachel's Vineyard Retreat™. Next Retreat is May 2011. For confidential information or to register call 604.525.0999.

3rd Sunday of Lent - March 27

When Jesus asked the Samaritan woman for a drink of water, he opened the door for a life-changing relationship with him. Stewardship likewise can be life-changing. When we open our hearts to Christ's call in our lives - when we use our gifts in the service of others - we like the Samaritan woman will draw many others to Christ through our witness.
