PALM SUNDAY VICTORY

They cut the branches from the trees and strewed them in the way because they knew their Lord and King would come along that day. They sang hosanna to the King and praised his holy name. Now even in this modern day we, too, should do the same. The Christ who came that palm strewn way to enter in the gate, will enter in your heart today, so do not make him wait. That palm strewn path of long ago is still a victory sign that Christ still comes along the way into your heart and mine.

CHOOSING GOD In His words and deeds, Jesus revealed that choosing God means caring for one another, showing mercy and justice, forgiving one another. In other words, choosing God means we are willing to face the same challenges Jesus faced: Sacrificing self, letting go of what we hold most dear. Jesus loved life. He did not want to die, yet he chose to die. And that decision, that choice "for God" has sent ripples through all time and space. Jesus' decision was His "yes" to God's will, His "yes" to live out, die out, and arise out of God's overwhelming love for us. Was Jesus afraid? Enough to sweat blood. Even so, Jesus chose God. Can you do less?

Passion (Palm) Sunday - April 17

Jesus was welcomed into Jerusalem with a great deal of enthusiasm!

It is easy to be enthusiastic, even to be carried away for brief periods of time. It is much harder to sustain enthusiasm, because that means giving of ourselves. On the Cross, the Lord gave his all. In doing so, he invites us to be more generous, to give our very selves so that his ministry of love and reconciliation may spread throughout the world. At the beginning of this Holy Week, let us pledge ourselves to be more generous, to be more giving, and to joyfully share our time, our talent, and our financial gifts.
