GOOD NEWS AND BAD NEWS The priest announced from the pulpit, "I have good news and bad news. The good news is we have enough money to retire the mortgage on the church."

A sigh of relief went through the congregation.

The priest continued: "The bad news is: the money is still in your pocket."

PROJECT ADVANCE 2011 PRAYER

Loving God: We come to You with thanks, knowing that all we are and all we have are gifts from You. Help us to be faithful stewards of Your gifts. May we share them wisely and generously.

Through Project Advance, may we reflect our love for You by giving joyfully in Your name believing that what we do for others, we do for You.

Like Mary, let us say "YES" and touch many lives with a generosity that honours You. Guide us, strengthen us, and bless us with your presence, now and through the years to come. We ask this through Christ Our Lord. Amen

PROJECT ADVANCE CORNER The year's theme is "Touching Many Lives". We will be launching this year's campaign on the weekend of May 7/8. "Through your participation in Project Advance, you are ensuring that the future of the Catholic Church in British Columbia is as bright tomorrow as it is today. Your gift provides the capital resources to help fund the purchase of land for new churches and the construction of new secondary schools."

Quoted from the letter of Archbishop Miller for this year's PA.

We need volunteers to assist before and after all the Sunday Masses for the month of May to help fill out and collect pledge forms. It would only require 20 minutes prior and 20 minutes after the Mass you normally attend. We really need your help to make this campaign successful. If you are interested or have questions, please contact Michelle Kully at 604-931-4854 / mkully@shaw.ca

EASTER'S WONDERFUL PROMISE

In the ordinary course of life we dream and plan, hoping our lives will go smoothly. It is a shock to be reminded of how quickly dreams and hopes can be shattered. In a moment when we experience life and death standing side by side, we are jolted into the reality that our certainties are not so certain. After the exhilaration of the Easter Sunday affirmation, "Christ is Risen," the Second Sunday of Easter gives way to the fear and doubt of the broken hopes and dreams of Jesus' disciples. Their fear was contagious, producing doubt within us. But our doubt is productive. Our search for the truth and the answer to our question "Did Jesus rise from the dead?" opens us to recognize the risen Lord. As we seek the Lord, He comes to us, blessing us with the peace, sending us forth to continue His mission, and empowering us with the gift of the Holy Spirit.

2ND SUNDAY OF EASTER - MAY 1

The early Christian community described in Acts understood and practiced stewardship. St. Luke reports that the believers did not claim any of their possessions as their own, but held all things in common, sharing all their goods with whoever was in need. Stewardship is not new, it's at our roots.
