"Touching Many Lives"

COME, YOU WEARY

Come unto me, you weary,
And I will give you rest.
O blessed voice of Jesus,
Which comes to hearts oppressed!
It tells of benediction,
Of pardon, grace, and peace,
Of joy that has no ending,
Of love which cannot cease.

CHRIST'S COMPELLING INVITATION

Just about everyone will admit the need for more stability and security in their life. There is far too much stress and anxiety in our world, too many who are greatly burdened. One pastor said of his congregation, "There is an heartache in every pew." Jesus also saw multitudes of heartbroken people. Many of His listeners were like "sheep without a shepherd." Their work was hard, hours long, income low, resources meager, and the demands of life difficult to face. Our Lord had great compassion for them. Jesus had a word of help for their wounded, troubled spirits and for ours. "Come to me," He said. "Come to me, all who labor and are heavy laden, and I will give you rest." That was, and is, a compelling invitation. To accept it is to find the stability and strength we need to truly live.

14TH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

When we think of being good stewards, we may think that God asks too much of us. By asking us to generously share our time, talent and treasure. However, the yoke of stewardship is not heavy. Good stewards learn that by turning away from the materialism of the world, we can experience great joy in spending more time with God and sharing more of our gifts with others.
