"Touching Many Lives"

GOD, THE GARDENER

Humanity is comprised of both good and evil which, like the wheat and weeds, must grow together until the harvest. Just as the servants in today's reading pointed out the bad seed, we too quickly judge the worth of others without considering God's mercy. Our self righteousness highlights other's failings and blinds us to the fact that even on our best days "there remains an un-uprooted small corner of evil" in our own hearts. Take warning today! Leave the final judgment between good and evil to the Divine Gardener who will do the final sifting at His harvest. What we call wheat may well be weeds and vice-versa.

For info please email vancouver40days@gmail.com.

Dear Parishioners,

The Catholic Church is missionary by its very nature: "Go," He said to His apostles, "And make disciples of all nations." We who have been made members of this Church through Baptism, are endowed with the same privilege and obligation to "go out and make disciples" of everyone around us. Since we are starting the RCIA classes again the second Tuesday in September at 7.30 pm in Room 107 in our parish school, you too can discharge this obligation by helping us in two ways:

1. If one of your friends or family members has left the Church or wants to deepen or refresh their faith, invite them to come to these classes. Or if you know someone who is non-Catholic or non-Christian do the same.
2. May we beg the alms of your prayers for an abundance of students for these classes. If you don't have too much time, please say one Hail Mary a day for this intention. God bless.

To enrol in these classes, please contact the office 604-939-1741 or 604-936-8742.

Thanks,
The RCIA Teaching Team.

16TH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

In today's second reading, Saint Paul bids us to take comfort in knowing that when God invites us to pray to him, he knows our true needs, even if we do not. The Holy Spirit intercedes and prays for us even if we can't come up with appropriate words; even when we don't have a clue what to ask for. We are not left alone. Good stewards know that prayer is an important part of living a life in Christ. The important thing is to make space for God. Do we let God into our hearts? Do we make room for the Holy Spirit to pray within us?
